The central Palestinian mountains area is an area of old closed continues permanent settlement since the Neolithic revolution. The main characteristics of these landscapes are:

- Consistency in position
- Variety of types

The main components of these landscapes are:

Agricultural terraces, Villages, Towns, Khirbetes, Holly Saint Tombs (Maqam and Mazar), Caravanserais, Towers, Castles, Stone Watch Huts (Manateer).

Added to these features is the tens of thousands of place - names that reflect all the old languages that is existed in Palestine since the Canaanites through the Aramiac, Greek, Latin, Old and new Arab, Frankish and Ottoman.
